WHITE SOX VICTORIOUS

Logan Never Had a Chance to Win.

ROSS PENNYBAKER

Held New Straitsville to 2
Hits Sunday.

In a game, in which Logan never attained the lead, the White Sox, one of the strongest amateur teams of Columbus, defeated them by the score of 9 to 6. The closeness of the score is no indication of the game, as Logan never had a chance to win, mostly on account of the poor catching of one colored gentleman, named Johnson, who was supposed to be a star, but in reality was a frost. Outside of the catching, Logan played a fair game and would have won with ease with "Cap" Canty doing the backstop work. The Sox after getting on first were sure to reach third, as by the time Mr. Johnson was in position to throw, the runners were half way to second and always beat his throw a step. Besides his three errors he had four passed balls and many muffed balls, which as a result took all the life out of Williams and he had to simply throw over slow ones that a baby could hit. Farrow on the other hand, assisted by good catching had Our Boys the "Blue" Sox on his staff the earlier part of the game, but weakened in the latter half and allowed the "Blue" Sox to score six runs, mainly through the assistance of the mighty "Scrappy" Jones, whose fielding and batting, kept the score so close.

The White Sox got away in the lead in the fourth inning, on a base on balls, an error by Kleinschmidt, two passed balls, two stolen bases and two hits, good for two runs. In the sixth they added three more, after Logan missed a chance to retire the side runless, with two down and men on second and third, Radebaugh muffed Kleinschmidt's good throw on Murphy's grounder, one man scoring and Murphy taking second, from where he scored on Kelley's two-bagger, Kelley scoring on Moran's single. In the seventh one more was added on Pritchell's double and Nesser's single. At this point the game began to get interesting, as Logan was just two scores behind, and were beginning to find Farrow's delivery with ease, but the beans were spilled in the eighth when Jones, who played sensational ball all during the game, erred on Murphy and Kelley, first two up, this followed by stolen base and an error by Johnson at the plate and Farrow's single were good for three more runs, bringing their total to nine, just three more than Logan made during the entire game.

Logan could do nothing with Farrow until the sixth inning, when with one gone, Kleinschmidt singled, Webb got a double and Beck was hit with a pitched ball, filling the bases. Up to the plate marches "Scrappy" Jones, determined to show his fellow citizens from Columbus why he is so popular in Logan. He certainly made good, for he drove the first ball pitched on a line to the left field fence good for two bases, and bringing in three runs. Beck, who was on first, scored just a foot behind Webb by some fast running. In the eighth with one gone, Webb's single and Beck's double, followed by singles from Jones, Williams and Fields and an error by Farrow, and Jones' clever steal of second was good for three more, all the Blues could get, as they were retired in order in the ninth inning.

Features of the game were the fielding of Jones, Kleinschmidt, Hunter and a catch by Webb, and Jones and Fields batting.

BUCHTEL DEFEATS STRAITSVILLE.

Buchtel defeated New Straitsville in the second game of their series at Buchtel last Sunday, before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a ball game in that city, by the score of 9 to 0. The Straitsville boys were helpless before the mastery pitching of Ross Pennybaker, the young south-paw of Nelsonville, and who pitched a number of games for Logan early in the season.

He let them down with only two hits. The next game of the series will be played next Sunday at New Straitsville, and as they have each won a game, a good contest is expected.

Marion Township Reunion.

The Marion township reunion will be held at the Old Dunkard Church, August 31st. Addresses will be made by Judge Reeves, S. H. Bright, O. W. H. Wright, and H. E. Sparnon.

Silas Warthman is Dead.

The news that our old friend Silas Warthman died suddenly Sunday morning at his home west of Logan, came as a shock to his many friends in Logan. For 73 years he has been among us and moved along in an even, honest path, treating every neighbor as he would wish to be treated, a good man, an honest man.

It is reported that he was in his usual health and a business visitor to Logan, Saturday. On returning home in the evening, he was not so well, and strangely as it may seem, he had a dream during the night of beautiful flowers and hearing grand strains of music and gorgeous celestial surroundings.

While about his usual morning chores, about 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, he was stricken with a dizziness and sunk down to unconsciousness and to his death. The news came to Logan as a pall among his host of friends.

Silas Warthman was born July 3, 1834, died August 25, 1907, aged 73 years, 1 month and 22
days.

He was united in marriage with Eliza McPeck, March 26, 1874.
No children to this union was born, but they took as their child, which was always named Ella Warthman, but now the wife of Jerry Blosser. As Ella was not their child by birth, though was always held in high esteem by them, and would do all that a daughter could do.

Geo. Starcher also had his home with them and at all times was found willing to do all he could for them.

Bro. Warthman was converted and joined the M. E. Church at Fairview in the year of 1902 and remained a consistent member until the Master called him to his eternal reward.

He was always found at church when health permitted.

The last night of his life he dreamed of lovely flowers and a beautiful country and a heavenly country.

He leaves to mourn his departure a wife, 3 sisters, one stepson and the two above named, Mrs.
Blosser and Mr. Starcher and many other relatives and friends.
A father, mother, two brothers and three sisters preceded him over the "Jordan of Death" into the great beyond.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

He was a kind and loving husband, a good neighbor, and loved by all who knew him. Was always found willing to do all he could to build up the cause of christianity.

Farewell my wife and dear ones, all,
From whom a Father—Christ—doth call.
Weep not for me, 'tis all in vain
To call me back to earth again.

Funeral conducted by Rev. L.
M. Baker assisted by Rev. J. L.
Baker, Rev. Geiger and Rev. Mathias.

He was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon. A large concourse of people gathered at the late home where the obsequies were held at one o'clock p. m., and after the religious services a large cortege of people in vehicles followed the remains to the Fairview cemetery, the last resting place of the deceased. The flowers were abundant and beautiful.

A large number of Logan friends and members of the Masonic lodge were at the funeral, and those present from other towns were as follows: John Abrams, Mrs. Alberts, Webb and Meri Beougher, of Columbus; Mr. Fetherolf and Irvin Beougher, of Laurelville; Dr.
Akerman and brother, of Ironton;
George Starcher and wife and Geo.
Harsh and family, of Marion, O.; Mrs. Emma Sheffield and granddaughter, of Marion, Ind.; Mrs.
Clara Klinger and daughter, of Celina, Ohio, and Will Beougher, of Lancaster
